Community Drummers and Dancers

Uncle Aug CIC launches Community Drummers and Dancers programme on the 23rd of July as part of the Street Party event organized by several organizations and TRAs. The Street Party commences from 11am until 4pm on Tatum Street, SE17, East Walworth, Southwark.

Among the several activities to make the street party a family friendly event, our community drummers and dancers will animate the community with the sounds of Africa. A Pre-launch of the community drummers and dancers starts at 11am on the square below Naylor House near East and Flint Streets' junction. Two of our drummers will be stationed briefly to welcome members of the Walworth Society who will be touring as part of the High Street Challenge Programme and the animated tour of East Street.

The official launch will take place from 2pm to 4pm and contain the following timetable:

- 2pm - individual presentation and introduction of each of the community drummers.
- 2:15pm - introduction of the dancers.
- 2:20pm - Free drumming workshop.
- 3pm - a short break.
- 3:15pm - announcement.
- 3:20pm - Free interactive dance workshop and free-style jam for festival until 4pm.

It will Feature on our community drummers and dancers' programmes are artists from various musical groups that include Wuntanara, Kaaga, etc. We are very lucky to have Souleymane Compo Artistic Director of Wuntanara is the coordinator of the community drummers and dancers programme.

Uncle-Aug is a Southwark based community company that supports local and national businesses by organising, collaborating and promoting events to encourage cultural cohesion, awareness and inclusion. Our method of bringing the community together is through presenting African Ballet, Drumming and Dance activities. These activities involve concerts and workshops.

There will be free food during the day. The community drummers and dancers' launch is funded by Southwark Council.
